Marseilles, France

Dear Miss Loving,

I received the "Post Script" yesterday & was glad to hear from you all again. What scare is a news paper as you get to know a little about everyone & also write them if you wish. Tell the girls they are doing a great job. Well things are going as strong as ever here & I don't think it will be long now. At least I hope not.

Well France isn't any better than that state of Texas. I've been just about all I want to see & am ready to go somewhere else now. There are some very nice sites of interest to see in Marseilles though. Some of u do a lot of traveling when we get leave. We go up to San Lo, Aix, Nice, St. Antoine & a few more cities. Last Monday we went on a tour in Chateau D'if (Monte Cristo Castle) & it sure was a site to see. I've taken quite a few pictures of the places around here. They will be very interesting to have in years to come.

How is everything back at school? What year are you teaching now? Well I'd better close this letter for this time I hope you & all the girls are well & in good health. Write when you can.

Love,

Bob ([illegible])
